One-Day War Bond Drive Nets $19,864

War bond sales on Saturday when members of the Eagles and Exchange Clubs manned sales booths on Main St. and Broadway, totaled $19,684.40 for the day, Carl E. Ward, chairman of the Sixth War Loan Drive in Redwood City said this week. The drive was the first in a series of Saturday sales to swell the city's total, Ward added.

The two service groups sold stamps totaling $34.40, and bonds —most of which were Series "E" —worth $19,650.

J. W. Locker was chairman of the Exchange Club committee in charge of Saturday's sales, and was assisted by J. A. Buhler, Henry Nissen, Jack Witley, Wilbur Doxsee, and T. N. Thompson.

San Ratliff was chairman of the Eagles committee and was assisted by members of that lodge.

Ward today declared that $25,000 of a purchase of 15 million dollars in war bonds by the Shell Oil Co. Inc., Pacific Coast territory, had been allocated to Redwood City. This amount, one of the largest single sales in Redwood City to date, is expected to boost the war bond totals for the past nine days to a sizeable figure, he declared The city's quota is nearly a million dollars and a large percentage is believed already obtained.

Up-to-date totals of bond sales during the current drive will be announced Tuesday, Ward said.

Meanwhile, the Treasury Department's war finance committee in San Francisco disclosed that Northern California's Sixth War Loan Drive is moving ahead at a steady pace, but warned that the tempo must be increased if the quota is to be reached.

Northern California quota for Series "E" bonds is $102,000,000, while corporations and large investors are expected to raise the remaining $283,000,000 of the quota.

Water Allowances Being Mailed Now

"All Redwood City residents who have filed requests for victory garden allowances on their water bills by today, which is the deadline, will receive checks in the mail by Jan. 1," Mrs. Nelle Miramontes, city tax collector, revealed. "Due to a shortage of help, there has been delay in handling the requests, but they are being taken care of as quickly as possible," she added.

"Remember the deadline for filing is 5 p.m. and no requests will be considered after this time," the tax collector warned.

77 Students At McKinley On Honor Roll

Thirty-four eighth grade students at McKinley School and 43 seventh grade pupils were placed on the honor roll following the first report card period for their high scholastic and good citizenship records, it was revealed today.

Eighth grade honor pupils include Albert Lopez, Peter Rodriquez, Dorothy Cliff, Mae Sibben, Ruth Verdugo, Robert Wolthall, Barbara Alvardo, Carol Vasquez, Patricia Crossley, Barbara Davidson, Billy Foster, Mary Lou Buck, Ann Lancaster, Bonnie Walker, Joan Woolcock, Adeline Anderson, Rosemarie Arndt, Claire Bailey, Patsy Brizee, Cecille Pohler, Mary Buckley, Holly Hedge, Barbara Janssen, Carol Kasobuski, Maria Navarro, Seymour Abrahams, Jim Driscoll, Frank Bowman, Don McNeil, Howard Frey, Lois Coombs, Beverly Hockaday, Wallace Hall and Albert Meyers.

Naval Officer Dies in Crash

Lt. (jg) John G. Marshall, 61, of the U. S. Maritime Service, whose home is at 631 Taylor Blvd., Millbrae, died at Mills Memorial Hospital at San Mateo this week from injuries suffered when he was struck by a station wagon at Millbrae.

Lieutenant Marshall, who was crossing El Camino Real 130 feet south of Victoria Ave., Millbrae, when he was struck, suffered a possible skull fracture, brain concussion, fractured right leg and a possible fractured left leg.

Driver of the station wagon which struck Marshall was Russell D. Squire, 31, San Francisco, who was traveling south on El Camino Real, the California Highway Patrol reported. The accident occurred at 6:50 a.m. Squire was not held.

Police Hold Negro On Knife Charge

Willie Ford, colored, 113 Claremont Ave., San Mateo, was arrested in Palo Alto this week after he allegedly threatened Gus Pappas with a paring knife at the Orpheum Grill.

Police were told that the defendant threw the knife when Pappas was removing him from the premises following the refusal of Tom Pappas to serve him because he had been drinking, police said.

Ford will appear before Judge John T. Springer Wednesday afternoon.

Fred Marks Finishes Marine Infantry Drill

Marine Pvt. Frederick J. Marks, son of L. K. Kezich of Redwood City, has been graduated from the infantry school at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, and is now awaiting assignment to a marine combat unit.

Marks, a former Sequoia High School student, entered the marines in June of this year. His wife, Erma, and their daughter, Janice, also reside in Redwood City.

In planning your home of tomorrow make sure that the wiring will be adequate to take care of the many new appliances you will be using.

The new appliances in your postwar home will be your hard-working servants. They will need the full power of electricity in order to work efficiently and economically. If, however, your home is inadequately wired, these appliances may become "jammed up" at convenience outlets. This drops voltage and your appliances work longer with half-hearted energy and thereby cost more to operate.

Plan each room in your postwar home for adequate wiring. That means plenty of convenience outlets, switches and circuits with big enough wire size.

Discuss wiring completely with your architect, your electrical contractor or the wiring experts of this company. The difference in cost between cheap "skimpy" wiring and adequate wiring is very little. Adequate Wiring will repay you with lower appliance operating cost, more convenience and comfort and help eliminate the inconvenience of blown fuses and dimming light due to overloaded circuits.

Menlo Park C of C Slates Election

The Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce announced today that ballots are being mailed this week for the election of officers for the coming year.

Joseph Willis, secretary, reported that a list of eligible members are being sent with the ballots for possible write-ins.

The following members were nominated at a meeting last week: James Cooper, president; Drew Stolp, vice-president; Joseph Willis, secretary; J. W. Ryan, treasurer.

Results of the election will be announced Dec. 16.

S.F. Motorist Cited For Traffic Violation

Glen Swan, 50, of 835 Clayton St., San Francisco, was cited for failure to yield the right of way following a collision with a Greyhound bus driven by Robert E. Daw, 26, of 715½ Shrader St., San Francisco, this week.

The accident occurred as Swan attempted to make a left turn onto Junipero Serra Blvd. from El Camino Real and collided with the bus, California State Highway Patrol officers said today.

Daw, erroneously reported as having been cited by patrolmen, was not held in the accident, Highway Patrol officers said today.

Surplus Trucks Soon Available for Farmers

Local farmers interested in obtaining surplus government trucks which will soon be released to San Mateo County through the county agricultural adjustment association may contact the San Mateo County AAA office, Kelly Ave., Half Moon Bay, the AAA revealed this week.

A procedure has been inaugurated between the California AAA Committee and the procurement division whereby surplus trucks will be made available, it was explained.

Precedent Setting Hearing Involves R.C. Port Income

Tariff rates on bulk cement—involving approximately $26,000 additional yearly income to the Port of Redwood City from the Permanente Co. and approximately $70,000 in payments assertedly due the port—will be determined in a precedent-setting hearing currently being conducted by the United States Maritime Commission, Port Mgr. A. A. Moran announced this week.

The proceeding, in which testimony was taken and many exhibits were introduced several months ago, has been submitted to the commission on briefs which were last week filed by the interested parties. Early next year the examiners will render a report and a decision will be made by the commission.

The inquiry was instigated by the maritime commission last January, immediately following a U. S. Supreme Court decision which gave the commission the right to control rates and practices at municipally owned terminals.

Previously, there had been no governmental control over publicly owned facilities, Moran pointed out, although privately owned terminals were under the supervision of the State Railroad Commission.

The instigation of the quasi-judicial proceeding against the port is the first instance in which the maritime commission is exercising jurisdiction to regulate rates for a publicly owned terminal, Moran stated.

History of the case dates back to June 15, 1940, when Redwood City port commissioners signed a 20-year lease and contract with Permanente, agreeing not to assess any service charge on bulk cement shipments, providing Permanente were the operator of the vessels loading the bulk cement, the port manager explained today.

A wharfage charge and dockage fee were to be paid, but no service fee was to be charged for the bulk cement.

In October of 1941, however, the port alleges that Permanente changed its methods of sale of cement and thereafter the port commissioners were billed for the services.

Payment of these fees, which have accumulated to an approximate $70,000, is dependent upon the final rulings of the maritime commission, Moran declared.

Among the debtors listed by the port are the Matson Navigation Co., Portland Cement Co. and the War Shipping Administration which assumed operation of merchant ships earlier in the war.

In briefs filed in the case, the Port of Redwood City claims that the free contract rate is illegal because it is discriminatory. Furthermore, the port commissioners allege, the rate should be compensatory in order to be legal.

The Permanente Co., which has intervened in the case, has charged that the contract is binding and so opposed the 20-cent service charge which during the period of a year would total approximately $26,000 for the loading of 130,000 tons of bulk cement.

The case, known as USMC 629, will determine if the rate is to be free or compensatory and if the same rate will be offered to all other shippers of bulk cement.

During preliminary hearings of the case, 35 days were spent in gathering more than 2500 pages of testimony concerning this and relevant cases, analogous tariff rates, and other information pertaining to the matter, Moran said.

When answers are filed to the original briefs in December, the matter will be forwarded to Washington, D. C., where the maritime commission will study the case and render a decision.

Representing the Port of Redwood City in the proceedings is Paul A. McCarthy, attorney for the port commissioners, and Joseph J. Geary of Lillick, Geary, Olsen and Charles, San Francisco admiralty attorneys.

It's Official! Col. Henry W. Edmonds Wins S.M. County Supervisor Position

Lt. Col. Henry W. Edmonds was elected over Dr. Arthur E. O'Neill to succeed John W. Poole, who did not seek re-election, as supervisor from the Third Township by 850 votes, final figures released by County Clerk William H. Augustus show.

Edmonds received a total of 27,143 votes, including precinct and absentee ballots, to 26,293 for O'Neill.

Dr. O'Neill, Redwood City dentist, led in three of the five townships in the county—the first, second and fourth—the final figures show, but Colonel Edmonds, retired army officer of Redwood City, picked up enough votes in the Third and Fifth Townships to win.

In the First Dist. Edmonds polled 5832 votes, O'Neill 6105; Second Dist., Edmonds 7207, O'Neill 9113; Third Dist., 7903, O'Neill 6491; Fourth Dist., Edmonds 421, O'Neill 487; Fifth Dist., Edmonds 5780, O'Neill 4097.

The million-dollar Redwood City improvement program proposition received a two-thirds majority, with 4148 "yes" votes to 2042 "no" votes. The count was close until service personnel voted by absentee ballot 5 to 1 in favor of the proposition to put it over by a narrow margin.

Redwood City Proposition 2, called the Redwood City Plan, carried, 3766 to 1845.

The San Bruno retirement plan was passed by a vote of 2124 to 1587.

Franklin D. Roosevelt led Thomas E. Dewey for president in San Mateo County, 34,594 to 33,590. Frederick Houser led Sen. Sheridan Downey for U. S. senator, 34,562 to 30,459. Incumbent John Z. Anderson polled 35,174 votes to 28,709 for Arthur Johnson for representative from the Eighth Congressional District.

Anzio Landing 'Roughest' for R.C. Sailor Who Spent Nearly Three Years Overseas

Soundman 2/c Elmer J. Knitter is home in Redwood City this week for the first time in nearly three years after participating in landings at Sicily, Salerno, Anzio, and more recently, Southern France.

One month after he was graduated from Sequoia High School in January, 1942, Knitter left for duty with the navy. For eight months he was stationed aboard a subchaser in the Caribbean theater, operating from South America, and then he was transferred to North Africa for duty.

The landing at Anzio, when his sub chaser led the first wave of landing boats, was the "roughest" of the actions in which he participated, Knitter declares.

"Our ship was damaged, but nothing serious."

As for the landing in Southern France, it was "well planned and carried out. It was a lot better than we had expected," he commented.

Knitter went ashore in Southern France on D-Day plus two, he said in describing a trip to St. Tropez which is between Toulon and Cannes.

Much of the fighting was inland by then, he continued, and the French people gave the Americans a "good welcome."

"We were able to do quite a bit of shopping for souvenirs, although most of the more valuable things had been hidden from the Germans and were not to be seen."

Knitter, who describes Redwood City as "still the same old town," received copies of the Tribune while he was overseas.

"Everybody on ship read the Tribune—especially the advertisements because they featured articles that we couldn't buy and at prices we didn't see over there."

Planning to spend his 30-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Knitter of 1983 Cordilleras Rd., the young soldier is a staunch booster for Redwood City. "The guys in the East don't know what they're missing," he affirms.

Man Stabbed By 'Friend'

Stabbed in the neck on a Hillsborough road by an unidentified man with whom he was driving to Redwood City for a visit, Fabian Burditus, 28, a Concord metal worker, was treated at Mills Memorial Hospital this week.

Burditus refused to reveal the name of his assailant, whom he described as a "friend."

While driving on Crystal Springs Rd. in Hillsborough, according to Burditus' story, the pair began to argue and the unidentified man drew a knife and gave Burditus an inch long gash on the back of his neck.

Burditus made his escape from the car and found his way to a nearby residence, whose owners called Hillsborough police. After treatment at Mills Hospital and questioning by police, Burditus was released.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

Do women talk more than men? There is no longer any doubt about it, so far as we are concerned. Last Friday morning, following Thanksgiving, we rode the 9:12 into the city. By the time the train left Redwood every seat was taken. Your correspondent, thanks to long years of commuter training (and a few end runs around elderly ladies), managed to get one of the few remaining seats.

★ ★ ★

But it was no good. We pretended to be deeply absorbed in a newspaper, knowing all the time in the aisle beside us stood a mother with one baby in her arms and another tugging at her skirts. The old commuter instinct of "seat preservation" battled with our early training in Southern chivalry, and the latter won. So we stood in the aisle and tried to read. But, oh brother!

★ ★ ★

Have you ever been in a pet shop at feeding time? That chatter is mild compared to what went on in that railroad coach. Ninety-seven per cent of the passengers were women, and children of school age. We wondered why so many women and children, and then we remembered — Thursday, Thanksgiving, and no school Friday! So mama was taking junior to the city, for one reason or another.

★ ★ ★

But what a difference between that train and a regular commuter train occupied mostly by men, who read instead of talk! The energy expended that morning in chit-chat would probably have driven the train all the way to San Francisco. Women are infinitely more energetic than men, and infinitely more friendly and more conscious of the social amenities. It's our theory that men talk less than women because (1) men have less physical stamina than women, (2) men are more engrossed with self, and (3) men are not as inclined to be "sociable."

★ ★ ★

No wonder women own 80 per cent of all the real wealth of America, and to a large extent "rule the world." Oddly enough that Friday morning we were reading Bugs Baer's column which undertook to refute a theory that there would be no wars if women occupied all the high places in government. His closing punch-line was this: "So long as men rule the world, there will be wars. So long as women rule the world, so long world!"

The moral to the above, if any, is this. From now on, brother, ride your own commuter trains . . . and stay off the shoppers' specials!

Dan Lebo tells an interesting story about one of his "clients" driving up in front of his store with the back end of his car full of empty bottles. When he opened the car door the bottles slithered onto the sidewalk and street and broke into many little pieces. "What made Curran so mad," explained Lebo, "was the fact that he didn't have Sammy or Sharon along to blame it on."

★ ★ ★

Commuter Al Armitage has sold his newly-acquired home on Clinton St., and is moving his family back to New York state, their former home. Al must spend a good part of the next six months back there on business, so he figured he might as well move his family for the time being. He hopes, however, to return to California to live as soon as the war is over. We all hope so too, Al. . . . Commuter Fred C. Jaeger has opened his own insurance office at 444 Calif. St., San Francisco. Good luck, Fred! . . . Met John ("Pop") Mullen and his charming bride of 50 summers on the street the other day, and we asked Pop what he knew for publication. "Everything is calm and serene," he said, "and you may quote me." Don't know whether he meant matrimonially or not. We've always heard that the first 50 years of wedded life are the toughest.

★ ★ ★

The Commuters 6th War Loan committee is composed of the following: Clarence Brizee, chairman; Wrex Cruse, Paul Allen, Al Armitage, Ray Cereghino, John Clarke, Fred Kubes, Miles McDonald and Lu Reiss. They will conduct street sales Saturday, Dec. 16, assisted by the old reliable, Gene Barrett, and his public address system. (If they ever award medals for distinguished service on the home front, Gene Barrett is one partiot we hope they won't overlook.) Remember Commuters you don't have to wait until the 16th to buy bonds. Each member of your committee has subscription blanks NOW. . . . Wrex Cruse, chairman of the Club's boy scout committee, advises that Troop 160 is badly in need of a scout master. If you know anyone with scouting experience, and who has the time for the job, please advise Wrex.

★ ★ ★

We are constantly learning new and amazing things about our Commuter friends. For instance, one Richard tum Suden, a prominent San Francisco attorney living in Emerald Lake, meditates on his pending court cases while building exquisite patio coffee tables with wrought iron bases, but he does lay out the design and execute all of the difficult tile masonry in connection with the tops. They are truly works of art; and who knows, someday Dick day be more famous for his tile coffee tables than for the Doakes versus Doakes case that he won. Hobbies and life are like that. At any rate we know Dick's tables are nice because he was kind enough to give us one for our new home, and whether it becomes a museum piece or not, it will always be treasured by the Caboose menage.

Honeycomb Cells Differ

Honeycomb is made up of cells of two sizes, the larger being used for the raising of drones, while the others serve for the smaller and more numerous workers.

County Road Repair Approved in Capital

The State Dept. of Public Works has awarded a $32,737 contract to the Union Paving Co. of San Francisco for grading and surfacing three-tenths of a mile of State Route 2, the Junipero Serra Blvd., between Sneath Ln. and Forest Ln. in San Bruno, the Associated Press reported from Sacramento Tuesday.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

6 good ways to use vegetables now available

Parsnip-Carrot Casserole—Put 2 cups each of peeled and sliced parsnips and carrots in alternate layers in a well-greased 2-qt. casserole. Sprinkle with 3 tbsps. flour, 1½ tsps. salt, ½ tsp. pepper; add 2 cups milk; dot with 2 tbsps. butter or margarine. Bake in moderate oven (400° F.) about one hour or until tender and well browned. Serves 6.

Acorn (Danish) Squash, Baked Whole — Put whole squash in oven, and bake at moderate temperature (375° F.) about one hour or until done, depending on size. Cut in two just before serving, dab butter or margarine in each half, and sprinkle with a little brown sugar and salt mixed together, or with salt and pepper, and return to oven for a few minutes.

Or Stuffed—Stuff halved raw Acorn (Danish) Squash with hash or Spanish rice or sausage mixture. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 50 minutes or until squash is tender.

Mashed Rutabagas (Yellow Turnips) and Potatoes—Pare and cut rutabagas lengthwise in halves or quarters, or dice them. Cook, covered, in just enough boiling water to keep them covered, until tender (about 20 to 30 minutes). Drain; season with salt and pepper, cream or milk, and butter or margarine. Mash and combine with equal amount of mashed potatoes.

Baked Pumpkin—(Incidentally, winter squash is interchangeable with pumpkin in this and many other dishes). Cut pumpkin into pieces suitable for serving. Remove seeds, but do not peel. Place in single layer in large shallow baking dish, and bake in moderate oven (400° F.) about one hour or until tender. Season with salt, pepper, sugar, and butter or margarine. Serve on shell, or scoop out, mash, season, and serve.

Rutabagas (Yellow Turnips) Au Gratin—Combine 4 cups of diced cooked rutabagas with 2 cups medium white sauce, adding ½ cup grated American cheese, and seasonings to taste. Place in well-greased casserole; sprinkle top with a little additional cheese; bake in hot oven (450° F.) about 20 minutes, or until cheese is melted and rutabagas are thoroughly heated.
